This worksheet is designed for line cutting practice. It features four colorful rockets flying across the page. Each rocket is suspended by a long, vertical dashed line that extends down to the bottom of the page. At the end of each dashed line is a small icon of a pair of scissors, indicating where to start cutting. The rockets are: 1) A yellow rocket with a girl with red hair and glasses inside. 2) A pink rocket with a boy with red hair inside. 3) A pink rocket with a boy with brown hair inside. 4) A pink rocket with a boy with red hair inside. The background is white with scattered blue and orange dots, and two yellow and purple teardrop shapes on the right side.
